

press
information
press

Association of Space Explorers awards a scholarship to an ISU Space Studies Program 2017 participant

“Ms. Beth Healey has shown remarkable motivation and energy in the Antarctic Overwinter Campaign at Concordia. Through her research this outpost in isolation and darkness can be seen as a true analogue to space, helping future space farers to better cope with the adversities of their journey.”

press information presse

International Space University